Republican State Convention

Republican State Convention.

A Convention of the Union Republican Party of West Virginia will be held at Clarksburg, W. Va., not Truesbary, Mar II, 156, for the purpose of appointing ten delegates to the Union Republican National Convention which is to assemble at Cincinnate five Presidential Bicetors.

The committee is of opinion that it will be impracticable to avoid helding two Convention, and that the purposes of this Convention are not of sufficient importance to justify ceiling for large county delegations, and therefore suggests that each out of the propose of the Convention are not of sufficient importance to justify ceiling for large county will send five delegate—these delegate to be appointed by the County Executive Committee, or by County Convention, as such committee may deem axpedient. It is proposed to call another Convention during the summer, at which the committee hopes to meet all, without regard to past political differences, or previous party affiliations, who are in favor of making such changes in our-laws as time and experience have shown necessary; who are in leaver of the continuel procedution and panishment of official corruption, and who are in favor of restructhment and economy in the administration of our State affairs.

CHARITY VS. CIVIL-SERVICE REFORM -The following correspondence is made public by the Chicago Tribune, and illustrates some of the difficulties which ever a reform Postmaster General encoun held for seven years, to bestow "on anoth er gentleman whose claims had been very urgently pressed." The Chicago Tribuna concludes that our civil service is more corrupt, dishonest and incompetent than that of any other nation, Turkey, perhaps, excepted."

What the St. Louis Convention must do is thus set forth by the Utica (N. Y.) Obserwe: "The day for compromises with corruption or political heresies has gone by. On the finances, on the tariff, and, most of all, on the question of administrative reform, the St. Louis Convention must give forth no uncertain sound. The candidate must be taken from the thick of the fight—not from the fence."

It is beginning to look decidedly Bristowish. A little while ago Blaine was leading everybody. To-day it is the other fellow that is making the best time. Next week it may be somebody else. There is many a slip in a Presidential race, and doubtful things are very uncertain.—

a reform Postmaster General encounters:

Post Office Department.

Washington, January 22, 1876.

Dean Sir: The President has had under discussion the matter of a change in the postmastership at Lexington, and directs me to request that you forward your resignation to him. He further desires me to say that this change is not made on account of any indifference to your past services, loyalty, or present position, but solely for the reason that he wishes to give the office to another person upon the representation of several friends as to the eccessities of the case. I desire for myself, also, to say that the President has no eriticisan to make upon your administration of the office, or upon your conduct as a gentleman, and that I acquiecce in the change simply to benefit a more needy, family but, I trust, not a more descrying one than yours.

Based Case of Whitewnsh.

A Bad Case of Whitewash. From the Providence (B. I.) Journal.]

The case of the Rev. E. S. Fitz, who has just been deposed from the pastorate of the Orthodox Church at Southampton, Mass., is a most extraordinary one, and the simple severing of the pastoral rela-tion by the council, exonerating him from "criminal intent as the words are unde atood," was a proceeding, in view of the evidence, which those at a distance are wholly unable to comprehend. The testimony, which was "detailed and overwhelming," was of such a character that it could not be published, and was admitted to be true. The council seems to have taken the ground, so popular in these days, that no crime, no violation of obligations to persons or the public ought to be punished. Nor is this all. The Hampden Association of Ministers are under a grave responsibility in this matter, for they settled Fitz after Prof. Park, of Andover had told it that Fitz had "no substratum of truth." In commercial experience it is often found that a person will give a fair character to a clerk discharged for untrustworthiness, and it is said that ladies not unfrequently fail to point out to an inquirer the worse than faults of a former servant; but it is shocking if an association of clergymen will impose upon a church a man as-minister whom they have been authoritatively informed is a liar.

Fitz proved a good deal worse than that, but the gravamen of the charge against the Hampden Association is, that it endorsed a man who was not, and who they knew was not, worthy of the confidence of the public in any relation of life, muck less as a teacher in holy things. For the habitually untruthful man is certain to be wicked in whatever direction his passions or his interests may suggest. stood," was a proceeding, in view of the evidence, which those at a distance are

The Ups and Downs of the Oil Market.

[From Pittsburgh Evening Telegraph of the 27th.]
The condition of the oil market in the past two days has been so panicky that twe doubt if it has ever been exceeded, except by the gold market on Black Friday. It has advanced and declined at least a dozen tiffies from noon yesterday until noon to-day, and has taken some of the wildest kind of jumps. From twelve o'clock until four it advanced from $1.65 to $1.90, but declined to $1.87\frac{1}{2}$ and advanced to $1.90; it then declined to $1.87\frac{1}{2}$, when it again advanced to $1.90; and at noon it was again down to $1.87\frac{1}{2}$, and it is impossible to say what it will be an hour hence.

Something for the Rev. Stewart, of Steubenville. A writer in the Christian Weekly pro-duces the following, signed by eleven missionaries and residents of Palestine:

T. H. Logan, Eq.:

DEARSIN-I wrote to you some time since for a bottle of Rentlinger's Find Extract of Sarsparitile, and must say that it has acted upon me like a charm. I have been afflicted for near two years with Dyspepsia; two-thirds of the time I wonlited from one to three times a day. I had given up the idea of ever getting well, and indeed my friends had given up all hopes of my ever entings well and given up all hopes of my ever entings well smuch. Since last September one side of my next was one entire sore. The use of one bottle has much improved me; my stomach is apparently releved; my neck has improved beyond my most sanguine expectations. I feel much encouraged, and think by the use of one or two bottles more I shall be relieved entirely. You will please send me two bottles. I want to give its fair trial. Send by Yours, respectfully.

T. H. Logon, Eco. Yours, respectfully, ! W. HORNER.
